OBITUARIES

DEATH OF JOSEPH CANTLON
Joseph D. Cantlon, 215 South Twelfth avenue, died at his home early yesterday morning aged 34 years. He is survived by his wife and three children and has been a resident of Phoenix for three years, coming here from Tennessee. He is a member of the W. O. W. and the Methodist church south. No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made.

Death of Mrs. De F. McConnell
Mrs. De Fransa McConnell, wife of Captain W. P. McConnell, 210 North Second street, died Monday night of heart trouble. Funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock this morning at the J. T. Whitney undertaking parlors, 134 West Adams street. Interment will be in the General Wood cemetery. Captain McConnell publishes the Great Southwest Farmer, and Mrs. McConnell edited a department called "Woman's Realm." For many years she was teacher at one of the Minnesota state normal schools at Mansfield. The deceased was 75 years old and, with her husband, had been a resident of Phoenix for four years.

Funeral of W. P. Doheny, Sr.
Funeral services for the late William P. Doheny, Sr., will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at the funeral chapel of J. T. Whitney on West Adams street. The services will be public. Friends who wish to view the remains may do so between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock this evening, at the Whitney chapel.
